Every hurt and shame you carry
All the tears and pain you've buried
Every broken dream and every doubt
All the wounds that left you shattered
Worried that you just don't matter
Every fear that you will be found out

Do not be afraid

Oh let yourself, let yourself be known
You don't need, you don't need to hide
Step into the light
And be known, let yourself be known

There's a love that makes you stronger
There's a hope that makes you bolder
There's a God whose arms are open wide
It's the way he designed us
To show his power in our weakness
Open up and you will find his life

Do not be afraid

Oh let yourself, let yourself be known
You don't need, you don't need to hide
Step into the light
And be known, let yourself be known

There is now no condemnation, oh
There is now no condemnation, oh
There is now no condemnation, oh
There is now no condemnation, oh

Oh let yourself be known

Oh let yourself, let yourself be known
You don't need, you don't need to hide
Step into the light
And be known
It's time to be known
It's time to be known
It's time for you to be known
