You could count the times that everybody's hurt you
And build a wall so nobody can get through But nothing's gonna change if you keep doing the same things
You could shoulder all the weight and try to do it on your own

Or you could let go of all these things you hold
You could let go and watch your life unfold
You're part of a grand design
Bigger than what you had in mind
But you'll never know, you'll never know
Until you let it go

So take a step back widen out the picture
And see the world through the eyes of the savior Cause when we focus on ourselves there is nothing we can give
But when we lose it all we start to live
You got a front row seat but your never gonna see the show

Until you let go of all these things you hold
You gotta let go and watch your life unfold
You're part of a grand design bigger than what you had in mind
But you'll never know, you'll never know
Until you let it go

Gotta let it go
You gotta let it go, oh let it go
Let go, let go, let it go
Let go, let go, let it go
Let go, let go, let it go
Let go, let go, you gotta let go

...of all these things you hold
You gotta let go and watch your life unfold

You gotta let go of all these things you hold
Let go and watch it watch it unfold
You're part of a grand design

Bigger than what you had in mind
But you'll never know, you'll never know
Until you let it go
