They try to trip us up, they try to make us doubt
Make us question what this life's about?
Our minds are criminal, they try to steal the soul
This moments pivotal who we choose to follow

We are under fire but we know, we know
The truth in our hearts
We are under fire but we hold, we hold
The proof of who You are

And though we haven't seen Your face
We know that we walk by faith
We are under fire but it only burns
Burns all doubt away, all doubt away

They tell us we're all fools, that our minds are weak
How can we put our hope in someone we can't see
They come with ridicule to say that You're a fake
But we are not alone, You endured the same

We are under fire but we know, we know
The truth in our hearts
We are under fire but we hold, we hold
The proof of who You are

And though we haven't seen Your face
We know that we walk by faith
We are under fire but it only burns
Burns all doubt away

We're chasing what's real, we're chasing what's true
We know it's God, we know it's You
We're chasing what's real, we're chasing what's true
We know it's God, it's got to be You, oh, oh, oh

We are under fire but we know, we know
The truth in our hearts
We are under fire but we hold, we hold
The proof of who You are

And though we haven't seen Your face
We know that we walk by faith

We are under fire but it only burns
Burns all doubt away, all doubt away

It burns all doubt away, all doubt away
It burns all doubt away

They try to trip us up, they try to make us doubt
Make us question what this life's about?
Our minds are criminal, they try to steal the soul
