I'm like everyone living in a quick fix nation
Chasing this American dream (oh, oh)
I'm way too busy always looking for the next fixation
But nothing ever seems to satisfy me (no,no)

Cause I'm still lost and empty
And I'm still numb I can't see

That you're desperate, you're desperate to be near me
And you've been here, you've been here all along
Still I push you away but you stay
Because your love goes on, your love goes on
And you would follow me a million miles
And a million times you saved my life
Cause you're desperate, you're desperate to show me
That your love goes on, your love goes on

I remember when there was nothing between us
And I believed with all I had, yeah
You held my hand when I was lost
You showed me love at any cost

Cause you're desperate, you're desperate to be near me
And you've been here, you've been here all along
Still I push you away but you stay
Because your love goes on, your love goes on
And you would follow me a million miles
And a million times you saved my life
Cause you're desperate, you're desperate to show me
That your love goes on, your love goes on

Oh your love goes on God help me right what I got wrong

Cause I'm desperate, I'm desperate to be near you
And you've been here, you've been here all along Everyday you're the same because your love goes on, your love goes on
And you would follow me a million miles
And a million times you saved my life
Cause you're desperate, you're desperate to show me

That your love goes on, your love goes on
