Now you're on your knees
All alone, the belief in lies
Downstairs
Die to be in the spotlight
Shift
Glance piously
Another stoned adolescent cry
Live life violently
Increase your time
The stormy weather carries us home
Our artistic endeavors raising our hopes
I will shave to my soul, it's only a mask for women's lust

Set sail and exhale Useless tyrants need more advice from what's televised
No more history, no such thing as time
Freedom is just a penalty
Pyramids mummify my life
Live life violently to increase our time
We're on our own
