If there was no sunshine
I could learn to live with the rain
Darling if I had to
I could trade pleasure for pain

I could live without food or money
Wouldn't be so hard to do
And if the stars fell down from the sky
Baby I would make it through

But in a world without you, where would I be
Where would I be without you, babe
I couldn't breathe without you, babe
In a world without you where would I be
Where would I be without you, babe
I couldn't breathe without you, babe

Wouldn't be no music
No reason to laugh, no reason to smile
Couldn't call it living
With nothing to make the living worthwhile

You know that it would all seem worthless
If you weren't here with me
And I could have the world in my hands
But I wouldn't have a thing

'Cause in a world without you, where would I be
Where would I be without you, babe
I couldn't breathe without you, babe
In a world without you where would I be
Where would I be without you, babe
I couldn't breathe without you, babe

Baby, it would all seem worthless
If you weren't here with me
And I could have the world in my hands
But I wouldn't have a thing

'Cause in a world without you, where would I be
Where would I be without you, babe
I couldn't breathe without you, baby

In a world without you where would I be

Where would I be without you, baby
I couldn't breathe, I couldn't breathe, yeah without you, babe

Where would I be, where would I be without you, baby
I can't live, I can't live in a world without you
