You try to be a mystery
With all your eccentricities
Every move is so surreal
You can't touch what you really feel

I see a deeper side
More than you know
Don't even try to hide
I've been everywhere you go

All I want is to wrap my arms around your world
Break away the chains set you free
With everything that I can give to you
Wrap my arms around your world

You try to push the truth away
With all your witty repartee
A psychedelic romeo
Who thinks and does it all for show

I see myself in you
I know we're both afraid
There is an emptiness
Behind our masquerade

All I want is to wrap my arms around your world
Break away the chains set you free
With everything that I can give to you
Wrap my arms around your world

All I want is to wrap my arms around your world
All I want is to wrap my arms around your world
All I want is to wrap my arms around your world
Break away the chains set you free
With everything that I can give to you
Wrap my arms around your world

All I want is to wrap my arms around your world
Break away the chains set you free
With everything that I can give to you
Wrap my arms around your world

Wrap my arms around your world
Set you free
Everything that I can give

Wrap my arms around your world
Set you free
Everything that I can give
