Baby, someday you're gonna know
There's more to get than what you've got
You gotta learn to let go stop living it up, ready or not
'Cause you don't know what you want
But I can show you what you're missing
You say you've played around and then some

But you've never had it all
All in one woman before
The way that you want her to be
Look at me, I'll be everything you ever need

You want sexy baby, I got it
Undress me whenever you want it
Everybody needs somebody, I can be that woman
So take it easy, but take it, feel me
If you need someone to make you feel this good
I can be that woman

Time to act, make your move
You gotta react, honey, you've got nothing to lose
But the chains on your heart, the clothes on your back
And that didn't I make you get down?
And didn't I make you feel better?
Okay, we fooled around but you haven't had it all

All that we had was one time
A taste of the best you can find
Step inside
Feel me driving you out of your mind

You want sexy baby, I got it
Undress me whenever you want it
Everybody needs somebody, I can be that woman
Take it easy, but take it, feel me
If you need someone to make you feel this good
I can be that woman

I can be that woman, I can be that woman

Sexy, undress me
If you need someone to make you feel this good

I can be that woman
Taste me, feel me
If you need someone to make you feel this good
I can be that woman

You want sexy baby, I got it
Undress me whenever you want it
Everybody needs somebody, I can be that woman
Take it easy, but take it, feel me
If you need someone to make you feel this good
I can be that woman

I can be that woman, I can be that woman
I can be that woman, I can be that woman
I can be that woman, I can be that woman, yeah
I can be that woman, I can be that woman
