Remember this...

Romeo, Christina Milian

Verse1: Romeo

I remember when (when when whenâ€¦)
Let me turn back time on Big Ben
Let me tell you about the story from start to end
Release the ink from my Ballpoint pen, when it touches
the page
It reveals the message that I send
Are you listening?
Let me tell you about my first and only christening
My eyes all glistening
With the innocence of a blank page
Life is like a blank page
Enjoy the beef, the strife, the rage,
Wait... let me turn the page
And continue to verbally burn the page
With fire flows that are capable of burning down the stage

Chorus: Romeo & Christina Milian

Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy, baby...

Verse2: Romeo

Back in my school days
Was the cool days
School was the good old days, now
I tend to leave my teachers amazed
They never knew my hard work paves the way
When I talk about back in the days
The hard life

Everything will be all gravy if I play my cards right
That's right
Mother said keep close friends tight
Keep frienemies in the distance, in the night,
Wait... let me turn the page
And continue to verbally burn the page
With fire flows that are capable of burning down the
stage

Chorus: Romeo & Christina Milian

Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy, baby...

Bridge: Christina Milian

Boy you told me not to worry 'cause it's gonna be all
gravy
gravy baby
gravy
gravy baby

Chorus2x: Romeo & Christina Milian

Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy, baby...
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to alize
Now it's all gravy, baby...

Outro: Romeo & Christina Milian

The more money you make, the more money you make
The more money you make, the more money you make
Now it's all gravy, baby
