Intro: (voice)

Yea, yea, yea, yea, yea,

Uh, yea, yea, lil' momma we done this befo'

It's the same ol', same ol', same ol', same ol'

Uh, yea, yea momma we done this befo'

It's the same ol' same ol' same ol' same ol'

Yo Yo Yo

Verse1:

First time you said that you were leaving

I cried 'cause you said didn't need me

But the second that I started seein' somebody else is when ya had to come back to me

(Like) gone (gone)

Continued movin' now I'm better

I moved on to someone who would treat me better

But now your trippin' 'cause you see I ain't all by myself and you won't

let me be boy

Chorus:

Why you gonna call me on my phone

Everytime you see another boy at my door

Oh boy you should have thought about that before

And you wanna come home

And your alone

It's the same ol' same ol'

Sad scenario

Everytime you say you wanna be so low

Oh boy you should've never let me go

But you've done it before

And know I know it's the same ol' same ol'

Ooohhhh

Verse2:

(You) thought that you could keep on doin'
This too
You think I wouldn't keep on movin'
I admit it for a minute
You was havin' your way
What can I say
I wasn't over you (oh no)
Things change (change)
You and me best forget it (no, no baby)
No more playin' I ain't wit it
Don't you get it boy you did it
Now your tryin' to stay like it was yesterday
But boy you (you) never really cared about me (me)
Cause if you really ever cared about me (me)
It wouldn't take another man (man)
To make you understand (stand)
That you want me (that you want me) (oh)
Cause if you ever really cared about me
You wouldn't ever broken my heart and left me
And now ya wanna come back and call me up tonight

Chorus:

Why you gonna call me on my phone
Everytime you see another boy at my door
Oh boy you should have thought about that before
And you wanna come home
And your alone
It's the same ol' same ol'
Sad scenario
Everytime you say you wanna be so low
Oh boy you should've never let me go
But you've done it before
And know I know it's the same ol' same ol'

Rap: Sarai

I'm talkin' the games and the same ol' lies
The I'm sorry baby's and the lame alabies
Your love had me blind like Stevie maybe Wonda
Well love casts spells and made me unda
You got me
Already should have me
Now that I'm gone I know ya missin' me madly
Now the tables turn
No more you and me
Ro' wit ya boys, I'ma ro' wit PYT (ya'll)

Chorus2x:

Why you gonna call me on my phone
Everytime you see another boy at my door
Oh boy you should have thought about that before
And you wanna come home
And your alone
It's the same ol' same ol'
Sad scenario
Everytime you say you wanna be so low
Oh boy you should've never let me go
But you've done it before
And know I know it's the same ol' same ol'
Call me on my phone
Everytime you see another boy at my door
Oh boy you should have thought about that before
And you wanna come home
And your alone
It's the same ol' same ol' (same ol' same ol')
Sad scenario
Everytime you say you wanna be so low
Oh boy you should've never let me go
But you've done it before
And know I know it's the same ol' same ol' (ol')
