If the sun shuts down and decided not to shine no more

I would still have you, baby

If we see the last day and they say we gotta go to war

I'll be fighting with you, baby

Cuz I know if I'm falling, you won't let me hit the ground

If the boat is sinking, I know you won't let me drown

No matter what anyone could say

This is the only place for me

And no one could ever take that away

Nothing could come between us

If the sun shuts down and decided not to shine no
more, no more

I would still have you, you, you, you, you, you, you

If we see the last day and they say we gotta go to war,
to war

I'll be fighting with you, you, you, you, you

Because it's us against the world

The world, the world

You know it's us against the world

The world, the world, ohh

Now if I'm lost at sea 7 days, I'm not alone

If I'm holding you, you, you, you, you

And if it all end's; everybody in the world is gone

I'll be standing with you, baby

And if it's the last breath I take

I'll leave my kiss my with you

If there's a wall between us, baby

I know I'll break through

No matter what anyone could say

This is the only place for me

And no one could ever take that away

Nothing could come between us

If the sun shuts down and decided not to shine no
more, no more
If we see the last day and they say we gotta go to war,
to war
I'll be fighting with you, you, you, you, you
Because it's us against the world

Nothing's stronger now than you and I Cause your love is all I got
And this ain't never gon' stop, no, whoa

There's no distance here when we're apart Come on in from the cold, lay your head on my shoulder
Ride like a soldier, I'ma stay right here

If the sun shuts down and decided not to shine no
more, no more
I would still have you, you, you, you, you

Because it's us against the world
The world, the world
You know it's us against the world
The world, the world

Because it's us against the world
The world, the world
You know it's us against the world
The world, the world
Because it's us against the world
