I say yes and so,
I'll be by your side forevermore
No matter what the future holds,
Warm or cold, I'll try to make it through it all...

Ah, this our chosen destiny
I knew that we'd meet eventually
Because I hear your voice inside my dreams...
Yeah, even in an emergency
You know you can depend on me
When we're together there's nothing that we can't achieve...

I'm running so fast, my heart it beats so fast.
Adrenaline, excitement, having fun, will it all last?

Stay with me today and I will protect you, keep you safe. We were born in different worlds, so far apart, let's bridge the gap today.
I say yes and so,
I'll be by your side forevermore
No matter what the future holds,
Let's change it all and fill it up with hope, FOREVER...
