In the early autumn dawn i recall we were dancing in the summer night the stars were shining brighter than a diamond ever could

i was safe i am warm
like no one could do me harm and i wonder is it love that im feeling hold me close to your light stay forever here tonight let forever last a lifetime beside me now through the stars and do believe everything and its story now my eyes are reflecting my emotions show you what im trying to conceal

i was safe i am warm
and i wonder is it love that im feeling

and i wonder is it love that im feeling
