I'll take you for a ride & I'll do all the driving You forget about the path You forget about the time You forget about everything behind & just ride

I'll take you for a spin All you have to do is hop in You forget about your hurt You forget about your job You forget about everything for now & just ride lust ride

You will not be free Hanging on to things That hold you back & hurt That question all your worth That make you feel afraid Take these words from me I've been there & seen The good against the bad The truth is sometimes sad & life can be so crazed ... so crazed

I'll take you for a ride I'll do all the driving...
