Has a man ever took your breath away
Made your mind think about lot of crazy things
Showered you with flowers pampered you with gifts
Got you all exited about the first kiss
Now I can hardly wait to get to know you baby
Can't wait to hold you close to mine
Hopefully you'll stay the next time
My head is in the clouds and I really don't wanna come down
The world is in the back of my mind
And I feel like reality's a waste of time
My head is in the clouds and I really don't wanna come
down
The world is in the back of my mind
And I feel like reality's a big waste of time
You got me all google eyed can't you tell
We really seem to get along real well
So lets play some music and dance real close
I really like to se how long you can go
Just let go everything you feel Let your body float on and on
I hope you never go away
I hope we last forever now
My head is in the clouds
I'm so open for you I hope you can tell
Just how much I adore you, you're my angel
People search their whole life for a love like this You're my inspiration you're my heaven on earth
I feel such bless whenever I'm near you
