You caught my eye so I run dont walk to the corner store I adore you of course you can borrow my jacket is too long for your little legs so you gotta walk dont run to your neighbors apartment block the streets the traffic is a nuisance, I swear it's been at least a year or two since we had a chance to hold eachother's hands and be together, will we together

Your crystal tears keep runnin' on, your crystal tears keep runnin' on and on you're on my mind so i step dont stop to your chamber door i implore you with deepest of sorrow cosmetics arent as strong for your pretty face so you gotta stop dont step to your local aparment shop the streets for a suitable solution to the end that means a common resolution that when I had a chance at a beautiful romance I plee the teather, Im free forever.

Your crystal tears keep runnin' on, your crystal tears
