Looks just like
You're doing what I like
Across the way and I'm
Here with my other
Half of all
You said was true the rest
Was just like you and I
Both know better

Don't look at me that way
And I won't look at you
And no one will know
No one will know

Looks just like
You're staying in tonight
It's green and grey I spy
You and another

Half of all
I saw was true the rest
Was not for you and I
Both know better

Don't look at me that way
And I won't look at you
And no one will know
No one will know

Don't be shy
You're doing what I like
You're not the lonely one
Come on come over
Half of all
Of this is true the rest
Is me not you and I
Both know better
