You said you believed that we Could find love together happily
And after all the wrong I've done
You think that I am still the one
To give your loving to
So bring it home to you

You told me that you'd love me if I'd ever change
Welcome me into your arms again
Come on in out of the rain, hey
There's a place in your heart to love me again
Happiness and joy you bring
When you call my name
Come on in out of the rain

I loved no one but you
But I strayed, I know I made you blue
You spoke unto my very soul
You warmed my heart that once was cold
Now I'm so glad to know

You told me that you'd love me if I'd ever change
Welcome me into your arms again
Come on in out of the rain, oh
There's a place in your heart to love me again
Happiness and joy you'd bring
When you call my name
Come on in out of the rain

Some people spend a lifetime lookin for love...
But I've got love right her all of the time...
Oh, I... though I try to deny it.
Deep inside... just couldn't fight it..
You turned my life around
The love that's lost was found, Let the rain come down!

You told me that you'd love me if I'd ever change
Welcome me into your arms again
Come on in out of the rain, hey
There's a place in your heart to love me again
Happiness and joy you bring

When you call my name
Come on in out of the rain

I loved no one but you
But I strayed, I know I made you blue
You spoke unto my very soul
You warmed my heart that once was cold
Now I'm so glad to know

You told me that you'd love me if I'd ever change
Welcome me into your arms again
Come on in out of the rain, oh
There's a place in your heart to love me again
Happiness and joy you'd bring
When you call my name
Come on in out of the rain
Wow...
Baby, come out of the rain.
