"Reindeer Boogie"

Santa had a cup of coffee

And he ate a little snack

Threw his old pack right over his back

Opened the windows of his little shack

And shouted "Oh Dasher and Dancer

Vixen and Blitzen come on here

We're gonna get a-goin' and spread some cheer

So limber your legs and sharpen your hooves

'Cause tonight is the night

We're gonna jump on the roof

Well the reindeer they were so proud and grand

To take another trip all over the land

They jumped right into their proper place

To get hepped up for that midnight race

Ol' Santa he shook off the ice and snow

Boarded his sleigh and then yelled "let's go"

All the little toys were happy too

Because they were so bright and new

A little piano then started to play

Santa began to swing and sway

Thought he heard a toy drum startin' to beat

But he found it was the rhythm of the reindeer feet

The reindeer boogied in the middle of the road

Tonight we have a mighty big load

Don't boogie to the left now boogie to the right

Do the reindeer boogie this Christmas Eve night

The reindeer boogied in the middle of the road

Tonight we have a mighty big load

Don't boogie to the left now boogie to the right

Do the reindeer boogie this Christmas Eve night

Santa had a cup of coffee

And he ate a little snack

Mmm-hmmmm, mmm-hmmmm

Vixen and Blitzen come on

Mmm-hmmmm, mmm-hmmmm
