"Nature"

It isn't a matter of images,
or to show myself to his benefit.
The time for great speeches is over (no)
In the political cants which turn around.
It's a matter of respect, for what we do now.

Because our future depends on our nature
And what will be left behind
There is only one life to live and one nature.
I would like to go without regret behind me.

It's not a question of zeal, nor to drive out the naturalness.

Man is a wild animal (hummm)
Who isn't made for cages.

It's a question of being 6 (six) billion under the same roof, the same pond.

Because our future depends on our nature
And what will be left behind
There is only one life to live and one nature.
I would like to go without regret behind me.

I want to see myself (in ice) preserved in the eyes of my children (no)

If I want to say one day in person what we did, and what awaits them.

Because our future depends on our nature
And what will be left behind
There is only one life to live and one nature.
I would like to go without regret behind me.
(I would like to go)

Because our future depends on our nature
(Without regret behind me)
And what will be left behind
(oh, to go)

I would like to go without regret behind me
(Oh no regrets behind me)

I would like to go without regret behind me
