"Burn The Sky"

Visit "Burn The Sky" on MotoLyrics.com

No light, the sky above is empty as a
Lost heart, such hollow lives abide
Screams and cries are quiet from below the earth
And I know why the light no longer shines

I fall awake from the dreams of drowning
I fall back to life
Death becomes me

Burn the sky
(Bury the sun)
Burn the sky
(Another life done)
Burn the sky for one and for all
The bleeding, the dead and the done

Every window's painted black
For fear of the world around us
And every door is grey and barred
For fear we may escape it
