

Bella Morte "Eternal"

Find a voice, amplified, to scream into the sky
Silence is suicide, life undone
Silence falls to the call of the day

And another day comes
As another begins to erode
Fades away 'til it's gone
We hold the light in our hands
As the darkness begins to erode
Shines as bright as the sun

We are finding our way through the dark unknown
We are watching the sky for a storm to come

We're as one, unified, and we're fighting the tide
Crush the doubts that remain, kill them all
Silence falls to the call of the day

Fear, like the silence in your hearts
Tears the soul, tears it apart
