So long ago the days when we first met
Two years have passed
So much has changed around us

In my life you are a ray of light
Tonight if I should die, hold my heart within your eyes

I still recall your face from so long ago
Two voices spoke of hope from a distant place
And still this day your eyes flow like the sea

In my life you are the stars that shine
Tonight if I should die, lay me by the water's side

When you are lost I will be there
(Waiting for you)
When you are lost I will be there
(Waiting for you)
When you are lost I will be there
(Waiting for you)
When you are lost I will be there
(Waiting for you)
