You wanna be king, you wanna be everything. You wanna be great, just for the sake of the smiles. You wanna be me, but its not jealousy, just got some things that you wanna have.

You wanna be the meanest old man that a pretty boy can. The sweetest dream oh, some scream in the middle of the night. You wanna be Jimmy Dean cool, but your a dancin' fool. You want forever in all tonight.

You wanna be more than an old man when your dog day comes like you know that it will and You wanna be in love with a beautiful lady and touched by a beautiful child. You wanna be just lovin' yourself for a little while.

You wanna, slip on by with your head up high. Be your own man except for one little girl who might understand. You wanna love her back keep for your black foot so very black. Hold her up in the palm of your hand.
You wanna be more than an old man when your dog day comes like you know that it will and You wanna be in love with a beautiful lady and touched by a beautiful child.

You wanna be
more than an old man when your dog day comes like you know that it will so, just be lovin' yourself for a little while oh

Oh your brain is adverse but your heart is diluted.
Theres no tryin' for love if the planes not included. You wanna be the devil
