Take this breath as a warning barely goes beneath the neck wake me up before the morning for the pain has not yet left your head take my hand and squeeze if you feel it coming again

she goes down so far to that place again so fast, I cant catch, I cant reach no, no I can not be heard she goes down so far so fast to that place I cant catch or reach no
I cannot be heard

nod your head with understanding, just like that everyday, becomes so demanding so you push and you push and it pushes you back

catch, I cant reach no, no I can not be heard you fell down and turn over youve gotta move on beyond that cruddy feeling You can almost hear them saying 'I know thats going to hurt but its going to heal' come down, come down, come down

catch, I cant reach no, no I can not be heard
I cannot be heard

here it comes
