You don't need those fancy words
To make your feelings clear
A simple little smile
Will serve me fine

Poetry is lovely
But all I wanna hear
Are the simple little words you use
To tell me that you're mine

[CHORUS]
Simple little words
Like saying I love you
Like saying I need you
More and more each day
Simple little words
Like I'm thinking of you
Well, it's those simple little words
That I need to hear you say

I don't need the promises
That lovers often make
Too many times they turn to lies

I'd rather have the sweet assurance
That your prescence brings
And now and then those simple words
That tell me that you're mine

[Repeat CHORUS]

You don't have to make it clever
I like the way you say it better
When you tell me just the way you feel

[Repeat CHORUS]

Simple little words
I love you
Simple little words
I need you

Simple little words
I love you, love you, love you
Simple little words
I need you

Simple little words...
