Don't say a word
Don't breath a sigh
Don't make a move
Don't bat an eye

Just hold me tight and don't let go
Just be with me, I love you so

The Mountains moved
And The Thunder Rolled
But now the earthquake is a gentle force
That frees our souls
And I am with you in the after glow

You gave to me the love I need
I gave to you a love so true
And now we are one skin to skin
You breath me out I breath you in

The Heavens tumbled
And The River flowed
But now that hurricane
Is drizzling rain just falling slow
Here in your arms in the Afterglow

A summers kiss to cool our lips
A lovers blush a body rush
The Long Embrace, Romantic stares
The look of love that fills the air

The heavens rumbled and the river flowed
But now the earthquake is a gentle force
That soothes our souls
And I am with you in the afterglow
