There's another kind of living
And we're getting what we're giving
Can't you see there's lovin' in the air.
Strangers in paradise
Tenderness in your eyes
Angels of darkness take care.

Get me rockin', get me rearin'
Let me feel that special feeling
Of loving makes our hearts beat strong
Baby touch my soul and listen
To that ever lasting song.

Then let your feelings find a way
It's okay, On a summer night
It's a dawning of forgotten dreams
And it seems everything is right, for romance.

You can blame it on the stars above
When it's love on a summer night
There's a fire burning deep inside
We'll let it happen tonight.

Baby, we can really make it
We can lose it, find it, take it
Can't you see there's magic all around?
It's only you and me
We can fly high and free
Baby, I won't let you down.

Tell me all the dreams you're missing
We will find them while we're kissing
And we'll make those fairy tales come true
So come closer baby blue eyes
I've got lots of love for you.

Then let your feelings find a way
It's okay, on a summer night
It's a dawning of forgotten dreams
And it seems everything is right, for romance.

You can blame it on the stars above

When it's love on a summer night
There's a fire burning deep inside
We'll let it happen tonight.

Then let your feelings find a way
It's okay, On a summer night
It's a dawning of forgotten dreams
And it seems everything is right, for romance.

You can blame it on the stars above
When it's love on a summer night
There's a fire burning deep inside
We'll let it happen tonight.

On a summer night.
On a summer night.
On a summer night..
