"Bliss In My Tears"

Visit "Bliss In My Tears" on MotoLyrics.com

Once there was a time
When all seemed strange and cold
Out the dark, saw the day

You're a danger to them all-
Watch out -
I guess nothing will trust them from Their goal

Now I'm crying
But there's no fear to die with you
Hold my face in your hands
And see it! - the bliss in my tears

But may be-
We get the chance to save
The love, we found in our hearts
And refrain the bliss in my tears

So in fear you're coming nearer they abused you - and I felt
It was hurtful to you

Look at me- you should be patient
Too-
Forgive them-
Cause they will never know
