Chunk! No, Captain Chunk! "Bloodridden"

I the herald, let my knowledge be thy guide In light of belief you come to me The gift of persistence, keys to wisdom wide I was given all you came to me

Children in light of belief towards me being led Brothers I welcome thee, embrace the path towards The kingdom of the dead

Encircled by fire, inhuman be my ways Speechless you fall to praise God of corrosion, prince of decay Restless be my ways

Children in light of belief towards me being led Brothers I welcome thee, embrace the path towards The kingdom of the dead

Come victors and victims, come Come, smother this slavery, come

So blind and ignorant, humanity abide
The condescending filth they are bred to feed
I the heretic cast this slavery aside
Embrace the revolt I'm here to lead

Children in light of belief towards me being led Brothers I welcome thee, embrace the path ahead

Children come... Brothers embrace... The kingdom of the dead
