"Gates Of Slumber"

Visit "Gates Of Slumber" on MotoLyrics.com

The clouds of twilight, they blind my sight

As it reaches out for forgotten shadows

Crimes of pain released from life

Tired and worn - tortured souls

Burning fires tremble the walls

Breakdown of life

Balance is broken

All stand to watch their fall

Darkness shrouds the fallen kings, as they raise their commands

Knowledge of ignorance

Long-past portals, forgotten in time

Never to be remembered at the gates of slumber
