"Mountains In Thunder"

Rising from an ageless dream
Reborn through nuclear fires
An ominous, ancient beast, legends have told - never to be seen...
Inexorable - death shall walk
Return of what once ruled - eons past
Invincible - force unknown
Unnatural fires - burn, consume
Hear it's roar - like mountains in thunder
Cities rise and fall oceans turn to flame
Eyes glaring hate
Destruction in it's wake
This towering horror's shadow falls upon panic-stricken screams
This ain't no fucking dream!
