"One-Thousand Ways To Die"

Visit "One-Thousand Ways To Die" on MotoLyrics.com

Death stalking helpless victims
Feeding off incessant screams
Dead conscious, endless bloodshed
Carnage and suffering

Sexual depraved motivation
In trance like blasphemy
Freed from human emotion
Remorseless apathy

Cursed into this world, unbridled lust to kill
Offering of your flesh, justified hatred

Lost human condition, forced living a lie
Denial killer instinct, one thousand ways to die

Lustful sins prevail, morbid thoughts remains
Subconscious voice controls, killing starts again

Blood assures redemption
Violent ecstasy
Torture rites abominate
Inhuman laws of pain
Time for retribution
Vengeance is the law
All of men shall suffer
Marcy I have lost
