She said: I am worthy of my word
Do they feel the same
Nothing will be forced
Wont come back again
Will they stay the course
And one day - she'll keep the pain away
Keep the pain away
There's a silversun in a faded scene
Just as long as she'll stay with him
There's a silversun in a faded scene
Just as long as she'll stay with him
Don't hold to the faith
Wouldn't that be cruel
Still burning the same flame
She said: I am worthy of my word
Up to this day - she keeps the pain away
Keeps the pain away
There's a silversun
