"Summons Upon Nightfall"

Damned celestial realm, a local bewitched Shall apperceive its hindmost incessant torment Unencumbered nightfall has been distraught
In its dominion iniquity

Entrusting bloodthirsty actions of vengeance and torment...

"Thou mortal curse in absentia abolished
I strive to vanquish compassion in its self-being For, I unfettered sorcerer, malformed to specter through flesh
Now to endorse the obliteration of mankind"

Poised over the illustrious sun to unleash gloominess Digesting its shafts as its blooded secretions bid the blissful soil adieu

Tarns dim to a dark velvet luster, liberating warriors of chaos
From cryptic labyrinths of its entrails due to its dyspepsia

Quartering carcasses, shredding organs, smoldering remains Squeals of misery by the fruitless muck, dismembered they rot

Thy beckoning...retorted
With atrocities of unearthly venom Infused into the hearts of men Saturated they plunge with acute abhorrence in terror
For now what looms is but the horror of the shade...
