Verse 1:

I know all your secrets.
Cos' i'm the one you tell.
I've been to all the places.
You know well.

The more you scream.
The more you scream.
The less I am.

Verse 2:

I hear all the noises.
Deep in your way.
I've wrestled with the night.
I've made the same mistakes.

The more you scream.
The more you scream.
The less I am.

Chorus:

If your lips are cracked and torn.
If you wish you were never born.
I'll break your silence.
If the hands that hold you down.
Are the ones that hurt you now.
I'll break your silence.

{instrumental}

Verse 3:

I see all your bruises.
That you've got to hide.
The promises are empty.
Do the always lie.

The more you scream.
The more you scream.
The less I am.

Chorus:

If your lips are cracked and torn.

If you wish you were never born.
I'll break your silence.
If the hands that hold you down.
Are the ones that hurt you now.
I'll break your silence.

Tell me now.
Why won't they listen.
Tell me now.
What do they see here.
Tell me now.
What do they want from.
Yeah--yeah.

Chorus:
If your lips are cracked and torn.
And you wish you were never born.
I'll break your silence.
If the hands that hold you down.
Are the ones that hurt you now.
I'll break your silence.

If your lips are cracked and torn.
If you wish you were never born.
I'll break your silence.
If the hands that hold you down.
Are the ones that hurt you now.
I'll break your silence.

If your lips are cracked and torn.
If you wish you were never born.
I'll break your silence.
If the hands that hold you down.
Are the ones that hurt you now.
I'll break your silence.
