

Cinder "Spin"

Visit "Spin" on MotoLyrics.com

It's late in the day, your minds flown away.
Your tongue hangs out, you're crawling.
Your east is west, you thought that you knew best.
Shadow man says you needed this.

Take me, take me over.
When you're down in the basement and the walls fall in, would you take me over and spin.

Stuck to the ground the world spins around.
Your hand's gone numb, you're falling.
You found yourself a twin, confused by everything.
You don't know why you wanted this.
