On a crooked, cobblestoned and ancient road I briskly Strode when two men wearing bowler hats, curled Moustaches, all in black, on a tandem bicycle went this Way, that way till they fell beneath a coach-and-four.

2.

When I was just six I was rather curious regarding Paternity. Just who could my father be? I think he was Skeletal. I think he knew mother, well, controversially.

3.

Then some time much later on, during breakfast Aunt Yvonne choked upon a bacon rind. She sang backwards,
Nearly died. Then there was my friend from school whose
Dog turned rabid, mad and cruel, and ate his master up.

4.

I would need more fingers than are given upon either hand
To count up all the sea-choked screams, calcined Whispers, rendered seams, pudgy-pretzled baby limbs,
Punctured lungs and altered hymns I've seen and heard
Today...
