Thank The Heros

(Chorus)

It's the many people making the american dream
It's the many people working together on the same team
Thanks the heros that are here for you
That have your back through the thick thin and through

(Verse 1)

American boy I know who I am
Hating the government and that crazy Sam
Seeing all my american troops fall
In this war not deserving it at all
Fighting for what we call pride
Knocking down doors no time to pick sides
They doing it all for the sake of your freedom
We use our words to get and please them
Troops and Veterans fighting for us
Joining the military than straight up on the bus
To train and get the title to protect the people
Willing to take a bullet straight to the temple
Keeping the colors in our countrys walls
Rolling around in the dirt untill someone calls
For them to come back and be with their loved one
Eating good food with burgers on the bun

(Chorus)

(Verse 2)

Thank the heros that are here to protect
Don't have time to drive their new corvets
The firemen jumping in buildings on fire
To help the americans with one desire
Keeping all of us safe and sound
The bell rings they're dressed with a bound
Of intenseity to do anything it takes
To me thats a person that has no fakes

(Chorus)

(Verse 3)

Thank the heros that save your life

Doing everything in the book with no trift
To make sure you take more breaths in Done with you and saving more lives again
Giving and taken blood from others
Doing a job of most mothers
Thank the ones that really do care
Thanks the heros when you think life ain't fair
(Chorus)

(Verse 4)

Even though i'm not down with this new president
Hoping some how he makes the country unbent
So I can live my dreams doing what I wanna do
Spitting to a bar, having kids, working till noon
I got to do it all, but i got to thank them
The heros that give me this freedom
Some how, stop the gang volience for a second
And listen to the words i'm spittin
Thank the heros they do it all
Different shapes, sizes from short to tall
Thanks the heros forever
Wish the best on that shooting star
