(feat. Jesse McCartney)

I am you
you are me
we are it little by little destroying humanity it's insanity
how we can be so blind to the realization now we're part of the divine now's the time look inside and find we'll stick together cause together we will climb gotta stick together cause together we will find gotta get together cause together we will climb chorus through the war little soldier cause god knows we're breaking down we're losing time look at the world little soldiers with the lack of love we've created on enemy lines maybe one day we'll have the brighter day maybe one day we'll find a better way maybe one day... maybe one day... we'll live as one

you and me

me and you
this is it little by little taking steps to find the truth it's what we do and you can too play the clouds open your heart and let the song on through cause now is the time to look inside and find we are all part, part of the divine ohh, part of the divine gotta get together cause together we will climb

chorus 2x

dream awake cause you know this ain't fake, no take it down protect yourself and your sorrow hell is low but i'm talking about getting high love is always living and i know this will never die realize with your real eyes realize with your real eyes, realize with your real eyes realize with the conscious revolution has begun

chorus 2x
