If you will think right
You know that I couldn't be
The one you've been waiting for

'Cause I know I can't be who, whatever be
The one you've been trying for me to see
Everything between us ain't right

No, I'm never gonna be alright
I'm not doing fine
You'll just have to see
Go, if you really want to leave
Just leave and let me be
Without you I'll be alive
Oh oh oh oh

So long have we been living in a lie
And I never wanted it to be a sign
We've lost the one we've been holding on
And now it's all gone

'Cause I know I can't be who, whatever be
The one you've been trying for me to see
Everything between us ain't right

No, I'm never gonna be alright
I'm not doing fine
You'll just have to see
Go, if you really want to leave
Just leave and let me be
Without you I'll be alive
Oh oh oh oh

Can't you see that we are tangled up in a lie
And I never really wanted it to be a sign
Just have to let it go,
Or just have to let it?
Can't you see that we are tangled up in a lie
And I never really wanted it to be a sign
Just have to let it go,
Just have to let it go...

Too much to hold
So much from holding on
Too much to hold
So much from holding on

No, I'm never gonna be alright
And I'm not doing fine
You'll just have to see
Go, if you really want to leave
Just leave and let me be
Without you I'll be alive
Oh oh oh oh (2x)

Oh whoa... oh whoa...
(Oh we could never be, oh we could never be)
Oh whoa... oh whoa...
(Oh we could never be, oh we could never...)
Oh whoa... oh whoa...
(Oh we could never be, oh we could never be)
(I'm never gonna be alright)
Oh whoa... oh whoa...
(Oh we could never be, oh we could never...)
(Can't you see this isn't working out for me)
