You called and said,
"I need a friend to listen
For it's all gone awry"

The distance was great
But was it too late to reach out,
To help and not deny?

The years they rolled by,
My sadness declined 'til all was
But a vague memory.

The newspaper said
You were found dead and that it
Happened suddenly.

You've won your release
So now rest in peace forever.
Time stands still eternally.

Friends and love ones despair
They were caught unaware, so surely
Forever came suddenly.

Rest in peace my darling, rest in peace
Happiness, all is bliss, happiness.
