Someone else's love taking over
Someone else's blood taking over
Someone else's voice taking over
Someone else's choice taking over

I'm letting go
I'm falling out of love
Falling out of touch
I'm becoming your possession

Dark spot on the sun taking over
The eyes of everyone taking over
Those who seek a sign taking over
The water and the wine taking over

I'm letting go
I'm falling out of love
Falling out of touch
I'm becoming your possession
