Every morning i'm broken,
every day i die.
every night i weaken
and every night i cry.
standing in the rain,
in the street outside.
running down my face
tears in my eyes.
Demasiado corazon
Demasiado corazon
Demasiado corazon
Demasiado corazon
Don't know why i wake up,
don't know why i try.
was that me the cool one
or some other girl.
standing in the shadows
of the sky above.
no one knows i'm crying
beaten by my love.
Demasiado corazon
Demasiado corazon
