(LYRICS: NIMROTH)

On the wings of imperceptible creatures
Iâ€™m dwelling through a myriad of stars
Innumerable dreams are weaved as one
No destination, an arcane illusion

With a super natural elegance
Oscillating through future times to come
Hold in the horrible jaws of deformity
All I see goes beyond my receptivity

Heavens are swallowed by the darkness of night
Another world now opens wide
Is this real, an arcane illusion
A dim fantasy, which leads to confusion

Synthetic illusions of dimensions unknown

Gaze in a cosmic world, which has never shown
Itâ€™s all-embracing maze of evolution
Abducting the human comprehension

Heavens are swallowed by the darkness of night
Another world now opens wide
Is this real, an arcane illusion
A dim fantasy, which leads to confusion

Iâ€™ve seen the future and the past
The withering beauty for those who last
Remaining silent in perished oblivion
A phantom-view, illusion or just a horrible conclusion
