Fk you!

You, took what you wanted and left, like locusts, Everything i gave to you, everything that we've been through,
You, bled me dry and then went, like leeches, Go, you got what you came for now leave, like vultures Ripped apart in minutes, what was built in seven years, the ink scarred on your back, may as well of disappeared, for as long as i remember you sold everything you owned, but now you sold our friendship, your on your fking own,

Sleep with one eye open (because)
Sleep with one eye open...cunt!

If i had it my way id slit your throat with the knife that you left in my back, all this shame, all this guilt, all this regret, thats me, im inside of you (x4) and this is your world fking falling apart mate, from the inside out, everything will fall apart at you feet, you've got hell to pay, yeh you've got hell to pay, you better fking bow, bow down to me, you better beg for mercy, get on your fking knees, and cry me a fking river

Sleep with one eye open
Sleep with one eye open

Best friends means forever Best friends means forever ... cunt!
