Now it's time for a long long walk,
and memories must be burnt,
cos they smash my head to the floor.
Empty ghosts, lonely talks and twisted temptations to
not get lost,
i will ride a painless road,
cos it's too late to blame my choice.

We will just get known in dreams and thoughts,
farewell my true love.
We will just get known in dreams and thoughts,
farewell my true love.

Sexy grooves, a lot booze to not get lost,
And i can't be a sober soul,
Cos it's too late to blame choice.

We will just get known in dreams and thoughts,
farewell my true love.

We dance tonight,
i hold you close to me
and the sun will rise, to take you away.
Go on go beautiful waltz
Cos we. . . dance only tonight.
