"Painful Smile"

Stop looking that girl.
Some people are meant to be alone.
You'll always be a stranger, stranger,
calling the world behind the wall.
Love and joy will never be your lunch.
You'll never feel the danger, danger of a kiss full of love.

Everybody tries to get some,
(angelic voice)
everybody is dancing higher,

Everybody expressed desire,
(angelic voice)
everybody cries for someone,
but they left you, with a painful smile.
