Verse1:

Though my heart and flesh may fail
And I can hardly speak as well

Pre Chorus:

I will not keep your praises from my lips
I will not keep your praises from my lips
Cause my heart must sing

Chorus:

Holy You are Holy
You are Lord God Almighty
Let the earth sing of Your glory
As we worship and adore Thee
For these are the things
My heart must sing

Verse2:

Though my world has swept away
I know my Hope is here to stay

Bridge:

I will sing I will dance I will lift up my hands
For there is nothing that could keep me from Him
I will dance I will sing I will worship my King
I'm alive I'm free and my heart must sing
My heart must sing
