Caught in the twilight zone
We walk along the line
Each of us on our own
We're;

The blind, leading the blind
The blind leading the blind

Spare me your bleeding heart
Spare me your time
How could we go so far
When we're;

The blind, leading the blind
The blind leading the blind

..no reason why we shouldn't be halfway

Can't stand the atmosphere
Can't take the silence we hear
No reason why we shouldn't be, precious now and again

Saving your best 'til last
You'r leaving me behind
Sharper than broken glass

Lead the blind, leading the blind
The blind leading the blind

We're the blind
